Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4, 5 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tomita (US 6,335,070).

Regarding claims 1 and 10, see Figs. 1-3 of Tomita which show a recording medium having a plurality of recording layers (see column 9, lines 10-15), and each of the recording layers (see Figs. 1-3) has tracks for recording information, wherein the tracks have a wobbling structure in which the tracks are wobbled at different periods as recited in the instant claimed invention.

Regarding claims 2, 4 and 5, see Figs. 1-3 and their respective disclosure.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 6-9, 11 and 12 are allowed.

Claims 3, 6-9, 11 and 12 are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art of record, considered in combination or individually, fails to suggest or fairly teach a recording medium including all limitations as recited in claim 3, or a signal recording method or apparatus or a recording/reproducing apparatus including all limitations as recited in each of claims 6, 7, 8, and 11.

Cited References

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited references relate to a recording medium having a plurality of recording layers each of which is formed with wobble track.
